Mayor, Council Take Oath of Office April 2

Mayor Mark Hamm

Sworn in as Mayor on April 2, Mark Hamm is a dedicated public servant and a lifelong resident of Moore. His family has been rooted in the community since 1952 and he has a deep connection to the city and its residents. Mayor Hamm's journey in public service began early on. He grew up in Moore and graduated from Moore High School in 1986. After completing his education, he embarked on a career in law enforcement. He served as a Deputy Sheriff for 18 years, as well as an Investigator with the Cleveland County District Attorney's Office for three years.

Mark is currently a Corporal with the Oklahoma City Community College Police Department. He has been an active member of the First Baptist Church of Moore for over thirty years, where he has found solace and inspiration. In 2012, he was elected to the Moore City Council, where he dedicated over 11 years of service as a Councilman. During his tenure, he worked to address the needs and concerns of the residents, always striving to make Moore a better place to live, work, and thrive. Mark brings a wealth of experience, strong values, and a genuine desire to serve the residents of Moore. With his proven leadership and dedication to the community, Mayor Hamm is committed to working collaboratively with residents, businesses, and city departments to ensure a bright future for Moore.
